

Op. Sibel MALKOÇ, MD

Gynaecological Diseases and Obstetric

Education and Experience

- Perinatology (Pregnancy Care)
- Infertility
- Vaginal Aesthetics (Vaginal Narrowing, Lips Reduction, G-Shot Injections)

Biography

Dr. Malkoç was born in 1968 in Trabzon. She finished her primary and secondary education in the Black Sea region. She graduated from Ankara Atatürk High School in 1984 and in the same year she started to Hacettepe University Faculty of Medicine.

Dr. Malkoç, who completed medical faculty in 1991, started to work as an assistant at Ankara Zekai Tahir Burak Gynecology Hospital in 1992. She completed his specialty in 1992-1996. During his education, she made many national and international publications and contributed to the translation of many gynecology books. During the last one year of education, she carried out her thesis on infertility. She started to work at Antalya State Hospital in 1997. In the same year he opened his private practice office in Antalya. After about 8 years of state service, she opened Jinefem Medical Center as a founder in 2004. Dr. Malkoç has participated in many national and international training seminars and congresses throughout her 25 years of specialist physician services. Perinatology (pregnancy care), infertility and vaginal aesthetic topics in recent years are her special areas. Especially in the past two years she has improved herself by participating in training seminars and practices on Vaginal Aesthetics.

Memberships

- Turkish Association of Gynecology and Obstetrics
- TSRM (Turkish Society of Reproductive Medicine)
- Turkish Perinatology Association

